Volunteers for braille book binding needed

BERKELEY — The local Red Cross Chapter is currently looking for additional volunteers to help operate its braille book binding equipment at its facility at 2116 Allston Way.

Knowledge of braille is not necessary. For information call 845-1430.

The chapter's book binding operation is the only volunteer facility in the country currently using a mechanized binder developed by Volo-Bind Co.

Robert Kost, head of the production section of the Library of Congress' division for the blind and physically handicapped, recently toured the facility to see if the Library of Congress' 10 other volunteer binderies might be converted to the process.

The equipment, purchased two years ago for the local chapter by the Congress, binds braille volumes in 10 to 15 minutes. By hand the process takes about 35 hours per volume.

The braille division of the Berkeley Red Cross Chapter, organized in 1929, began binding braille books in hard covers by hand in 1936 at the request of the Library of Congress.

However, two years ago the Library of Congress decided to duplicate each braille book and make four copies. The library discovered its 11 volunteer binderies couldn't meet the increased demand and sought alternative binding methods.

The chapter also holds classes each year for volunteers who wish to transcribe the printed word into braille.

"that a strong business community is good for everyone who lives in Albany, and this is the purpose of the Chamber."

"Some council members are not happy with the fact that the Chamber has opposed some of their ideas. But we believe representing the business people is good for the city even when there are differences of opinion," he said.

Denham said he wished that some of the council members would take the trouble to learn more about services offered by the Chamber.

He added that the council's "shortsighted" decision is partly due only "visited" the Chamber offices at 1108 Solano Ave., without any detailed discussions.

Denham noted that the local Chamber was chartered by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in 1933, and has over the years developed to the point where it represents a multiplicity of local business interests.

Bill Lacy, owner of the Albany Bowl, is the current Chamber board president.

Denham has social security as a retired person, having worked as an auto sales representative in Albany for 11 years until 1968. Before that he owned a department store in Albany from 1946 to 1957.

He has been an East Bay resident for 50 years, coming from Des Moines, Iowa.

For many years he was west coast manager for a large hosiery firm.

Times Hometown news

by Al Baney

That wasn't smog in the air during the three-day Labor Day weekend... just barbecue smoke rising from backyards of residents showing off cooking talents developed in the summer.

Correction... our apologies to Denise Waggoner for renaming her Mary in last week's story about winners in the Albany Parks and Recreation Department's annual pet show. However, the Times did identify correctly her pet sparrow, Wilbur, who placed third in the most unusual pet category.

La Porte of call... ever wonder where Albany residents go for the summer?

A note from Alyce Rogers gave us a clue. Alyce and hubby, Robert, who were vacationing in their cabin at La Porte this summer reports the Osear Grays dropped by after visiting La Portians, the Truman Goulds and the Frank Grays, both couples former Albany residents.

Another Rogers cabinguest was J. B. Martin of Albany.

But La Porte's a bit too close for Wendy Polvin, a 1967 graduate of Albany High School...

Wendy recently left for American Samoa where she will be employed as a librarian for the government of American Samoa for two years at its school and public libraries.

Since graduating, Wendy's developed a folder full of credentials... she earned her masters degree in library science from the University of California, Berkeley, and has served as school librarian in Fairfield and recently headed the Library Line program at Berkeley Public Library.

And now her father, Charles, on Washington Avenue, knows why she always read so much...

Turning east now... friend Geraldine Lim notes Sevilla McKenzie, an accountant for many years on Solano Avenue, has settled in Houston, Texas may have bigger cities, but said Geraldine "The last time I was in touch with Sevilla, she said she really misses Albany."

Another friend has stepped forward for one need... for those wondering why they haven't seen Bernice Boyd for a long time, pal Sigrid Oakley reports that Bernice has been confined to her home because of a recent illness.

Said Sigrid, "Bernice is taking some medication that has literally turned her into a 'ball of itch.' She can't accept visitors or talk on the telephone." We pals, pens please...

Eternal soroptimists... there they were, Albany Soroptimists, Bert Jones, Gloria Hansen, Geraldine Hollick and Irene MacWilliams, all planning geraniums in front of Albany Library recently.

The group's planting was part of a continuing project to beautify Solano Avenue.

The club is really aptly named... here were almost into autumn and members still have sprouts on their minds.

Travel tips from Albany Adult School Principal Larry Hughes who has just returned from a 9,000-mile, 22-state, cross country tour with wife Claudine, and children, Philip, Alison and Lisa.

Said Larry, "We saved a lot of bucks staying at those KOA safari camp grounds. For the five of us, average cost per night came out to $4. But more than that, we got to meet a lot of people. Staying in a motel isolates you from other people, but at these camps it was impossible not to meet others doing little traveling."

Friendly travelers, take note...

Can't get away from Albany... Patricia Parker on Stannage Avenue came out west to look for work and ended up here in Albany.

Alma Mater... New York State University Albany, N.Y.

Congrats to growler Pat Balen... he recently elected to the Peralta Community College Board of Trustees.

And no, folks, retired Albany Police Officer Bernard Johnson and wife, Bernice, have not moved from Albany... even if their lawn does look like took a powder.

Found this out when Bernard came over to complain about being missed by the Times came at his Key Route Boulevard residence.

Said Bernard, "I decided to watch the morning, and sure enough every house around got the Times, but not us. I think the barren front yard and mylar-covered front windows convinced them no one lived here anymore."

Bernard came to that conclusion when he talked over the telephone to family friend Dora Volpe whose first words were, "Good to hear your voice was wondering if you and Bernice had moved. I see the front yard and I know you'd never let it go that."

Well, to put matters straight... the mow covering was put on the windows to keep the summer sun out, and Bernard's poor lawn was killed accidentally when he was working on it recently with some chemicals. It's just taken him a long time to rot-tilling the ground into shape.

Come February though, when spring nears...

card, a procedure initiated by the state this year. To receive a postcard registration form, residents should call City Clerk Pat George at 644-8523.

Residents, who have refrained from registering in order to escape jury duty, also will no longer be able to use that ploy. Beginning next year, names for jury duty will be picked from the Department of Motor Vehicles list of licensed drivers in Alameda County.

According to the registrar's office, about 300,000 Alameda County residents who qualify to vote are still not registered.

'In-lieu' license fees distributed

SACRAMENTO — The City of Albany has received $7,136 as its share of the August distribution of state-collected "in-lieu" motor vehicle license fees.

Alameda County received $397,541; the City of Berkeley, $52,325; the City of Emeryville, $1,884; and the City of El Cerrito, $11,552.

According to state controller Kenneth Cory, $15,185,502 was distributed to cities and counties in the August apportionment of "in-lieu" fees.

The distribution represents the cities and counties shares of license fees and other revenue deposited in the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account during July, 1976.

The State excise tax at the rate of $2 per $100 of market value takes the place of local property tax on motor vehicles. Except for that portion withheld to cover administrative costs, the money is returned to local governments which may use their shares for general purposes.

Half of the distribution went to the cities and half to counties in the proportion that the population of each city or county bears to the population of all the cities or counties in the State. Distribution is based on the 1970 Federal Census as adjusted to reflect new incorporations, annexations, special censuses and State Department of Finance estimates.

City receives August highways users taxes

SACRAMENTO — State Controller today announced the distribution of $15,897 to Albany as the August apportionment of highway users taxes.

Alameda County's share was $919,358; Berkeley's, $114,025; Emeryville's, $4,493; and El Cerrito's, $24,165.

Statewide, $87,412,527 was distributed among the state, cities and counties.

A total of $22,311,787 went directly to the counties; $16,781,998 to cities; $48,288,742 for expenditures on State Highways, and $30,000 to the Bicycle Lane Account.

The total apportionment was derived from the following sources: gasoline tax, $80,786,578; diesel fuel tax, $5,774,647; interest earnings, $849,268; and miscellaneous, $2,034.

The total available for the August apportionment was $33,625,790 more than that for the preceding month.

The gasoline tax was $1,597,934 more than in July. There were no interest earnings reported in July. Miscellaneous income was $240 less than in July.

The distribution was $18,736,615 more than that for the same month last year. The August 1976 gasoline tax distribution was $17,332,335 more than that for August 1975. The diesel fuel tax distribution was $1,227,096 more than in August 1975. Interest earnings were $175,523 more than in August 1975. Miscellaneous income was $1,661 more than in August 1975.

EARTHQUAKE Berkeley Y seeks comments

as a result of the 1971 earthquake that devastated parts of the San Fernando Valley, according to David Ralph of the Golden Gate University Center.

"So much comes down on you so fast (after an earthquake)" that you have to have ways of responding that are vastly different from those of normal functioning, Ralph said.

He said there were 109 fires which the San Fernando fire departments had to respond to simultaneously. The communications center had to be set up on the lawn in front of the wrecked police station.

As far as residents being prepared for an earthquake, Koepke said, "All should learn how to at least turn off their utilities. These are often damaged in a quake."

"In addition, it would be a good idea to have a reserve supply of water, a portable radio, a flashlight and batteries."

Number of

WASHINGTON (AP)

With the new school year getting under way, there are fewer teacher strikes across the country than in 1975. In 1975, there could be trouble because of a larger number of unsettled contracts.

A state-by-state survey by the National Education Association shows a total of 24 teacher strikes in states involving some 50 teachers and 95,000 students.

However, most schools do not open until after Labor Day, and a substantial number of strikes are not predicted later this week.

"While there are fewer early teacher strikes this year, potentially the situation is as serious as last year," says NEA Executive Director Terry Herndon.

"Tight money and all the factors which led to record number of teacher strikes for the 1975-76 school year are the same," he says.

membership chairman, encourages women of all ages to suggest what the Berkeley Community YWCA might have to offer in the way of classes, program, and special events. It will be possible to register for classes at the membership meeting and to indicate interest in classes or events currently not scheduled.

The program features a talk by political campaign manager Lyn Suter, who will report on "Women in The Smoke-Filled Back Rooms — a description of the nuts and bolts of political participation."

Board president Betty Pfeiffer will open the meeting to greet members and guests and to describe services and activities offered by Berkeley Community YWCA.

Tony Vincent, executive director, will describe his recent trip to the YWCA national convention at Notre Dame University.

Helen Grant, board treasurer, will give an advance look into the Holiday Party, a special two-day event to be presented at "Y" headquarters in November.

Grace Uyeyama heads a hospitality committee which will serve refreshments. Members and friends of the Berkeley Community YWCA are cordially invited to the meeting.

Big jump in state jobless

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California's unemployment rate has made its biggest one-month jump of the year to 9.5 percent, a full two percent ahead of the national rate.

The statewide rate was from 8.4 percent in July. Employment Development Department officials announced Friday.

Nationally, unemployment rose from 7.5 to 9.1 percent in August. California's jobless rate generally runs about two percent above the national figure.

The reason, said Labor Secretary Bill Lawrence, is that industrial states with highly mobile populations, like California, have been harder hit by the recession than other states.

The state increase came despite a decline in the jobless total, from 921,500 in July to 876,900, and an increase in total employment, from 8,100,000 to 8,985,000.

The department said changes were well below usual for August, except the increase in the "seasonally adjusted" unemployment rate.

August's 9.5 percent rate is the same as January. The rate was 8.5 percent in February and March, 8.3 percent in April, and 8.2 percent in May.

It dropped to 8.2 percent in June and then rose to 8.5 percent in July. In August 1975 the rate was 11.2 percent.

MURRY JACOBS

1952, and Seventh Army champion in 1953 in Europe. In 1960, when stationed in Berlin, he was all-army champion.

Prior to the latter honor, Jacobs was the first black to win the Professional Golf Association (PGA) tournament in 1955 when he was stationed at Ft. George Meade. His most recent honor was that of winning the National Senior Golf Tournament in Palm Springs this spring.

During his army golfing career, Jacobs gave golf lessons to two chiefs of staff of the army, an ambassador and his wife, and hundreds of officers and their dependents. He served as Golf Course manager at the Wannasse Golf Club in Berlin, and also at Strauben, Germany. In this country he served as assistant greens superintendent and on the board of governors for the golf club at Ft. George Meade, Maryland.

Two years before his retirement from the army, Jacobs built a nine-hole pitch and putt course in Tacoma, Washington, for Madigan General Hospital.

For a while after his army retirement, Jacobs worked as a boating salesman, but the lure of the golf course was too great to resist. In 1970 he started in the PGA apprenticeship program at Lake Chabot. He spent 40 months there working under a professional and completed two PGA business schools, passed a file exam. His name was publicized for 30 days in all the professional golf magazines, and then he took an oral exam to meet the membership requirements of the Professional Golf Association. He is now classified as a class A professional.

Jacobs continues to play in the Pro-Am tournaments, and in the national senior tournaments spring and fall. He has played with such golf notables as Lee Elder, the first black master golfer, Dan Sikes, Mason Rudolph, Lou Grim, Orval Moody, and Phil Rogers.

Every Wednesday evening from 6 to 7 p.m., Jacobs conducts a free golf clinic at the Golden Gate Fields Course. No appointment is needed.

"We have a video tape-movie deck set-up for self-analysis," he said, "and we help solve golfers' major problems during the clinic. We give demonstrations, explanations, and there is time for questions and answers." Jacobs also gives private and group lessons, for which appointments are required.

In addition there is a driving range, and in the pro shop there are clubs, balls, jackets, and golf shoes for sale. The shop is open daily 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. except Mondays and Fridays. "People can hit balls and play golf every day, however," Jacobs emphasized.

Tuesdays are special for Jacobs, for every Tuesday he has a golf class at Golden Gate Fields for Juniors, that is, boys and girls age 17 and under.

Berkeley Elks jump gun in bowling action

ALBANY — Berkeley Elks jumped the gun on the rest of the leagues at Albany Bowl by starting play 12 days in advance of the traditional opening date, the first night after Labor Day.

Women's music exercise class

ALBANY — The fall session of the "Exercise to Music Class for Ladies" will start Sept. 15 and 17 at the Albany YMCA, 921 Kains Ave.

One series of classes will be held Wednesdays, another on Friday. However, residents may sign for both classes for quicker results.

Child care is available at 50 cents per child. Information may be obtained by calling 525-4447.

"Every woman has at least one figure problem," explains instructor Joyce Harvey.

Many are overweight because they are simply bored or are having difficulty with their personal life," she said. "By developing interests, making new friends and increasing physical activities, a woman can enhance her self-image and happiness, setting the stage for more sensible, healthy eating habits."

"I believe my easy, graceful exercise class affords a woman the opportunity to work constructively toward increasing her total appearance," Harvey added.

The class will include lively music, and each week, different exercises, yoga and body awareness routines will be introduced. Folk dancing and other dance routines also will be featured.

Women's playoff set

ALBANY — The Green Machine and the Sneakers will square off at 6 p.m. tomorrow at Memorial Park, Portland and Pomona Avenues, in a playoff for the Albany Park and Recreation Department's Women's Slo-Pitch League championship.

The game will be a rematch of last year's championship contest.

The Green Machine, coached by Dennis Meals and Bob Kaer, will field Ellen Zapata at the pitching mound; Estelle Wagg, catching; Pam Curtis, first base; Melva Hill, second; Robin Kaer, third; Karla Pfiel, short stop; Tish Mcals, leftfield; Katy Zapata, rightfield; Virginia Jones, centerfield; and Carol Swain, short field.

Coached by Larry Clark, the Sneakers' lineup will include Naomi Fukumori, pitcher; Cathy Corvello, catcher; Michelle Gardner, first; Noreen Fukumori, second; Helen Clark, third; Teri Johnson, short stop; Nancy Kato, leftfield; Katia Malin, rightfield; Val

Brown, centerfield; and June de Jong, shortfield.

In last year's games, the Green Machine's Ellen Zapata outduelled Mary Jane De'Luchi of the Hits and Mizzes in a tight pitching match. The Sneakers, led by a grand slam by Helen Clark downed the Turkeys, and in another match, beat the Bagatelles.

In other games, the Green Machine defeated the Bagatelles, Salle's Gals defeated the Turkeys and the Big Mac, and the Bagatelles downed Big Mac.

Albany Tennis Club

3 teams in 'C' league

ALBANY — The Albany Tennis Club has entered a team in each of three "C" leagues in the annual Northern California Tennis Association interclub competition, according to Bob Elliott, club tournament director.

Play will begin Sept. 12 at 9 a.m. at Memorial Park, Pomona and Portland Avenues.

At least one of Albany's teams will be at the park for the next six weeks, Elliott said, and "local supporters will be most welcome."

Play will be at the two south courts.

Elliott noted that the Albany Tennis Club attempted to field a team in a "D" league, but only five clubs were interested. Travel between each would have been too extensive, resulting in the elimination of the league by the NCTA.

Members of the Albany tennis team include:

—Team One, Pat Moore (Capt.), Nguyen Tinh, Bill White, Alex Whang, Cynthia Moore, Sharie Moody, Jon Ileta White, and Denise Figue.

—Team Two, Bob Boyer

—Team Three, Willie Redmond (Capt.), Bob Elliott, Gene Watson, Bill Jordan, Donna Waggoner, Mildred Holman, Kim Heine, and Robin Goldkind.

Each meet will consist of five matches of one set each, a setup similar to World Team Tennis. The matches will include men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles, women's doubles, and mixed doubles.

In challenge action Bill Bricker (12) defeated David Hoffman (9), 2-6, 6-4, 6-2, and Jerry Blank (23) overcame an early deficit to defeat Ed Mazzucchi (22), 8-6, in a single pro set.

Standings in the ladder for women's singles, and men's, women's and mixed doubles remained unchanged.

MEN'S SINGLES LADDER
1. Pat Moore, 2. Bill Boyer, 3. Willie Redmond, 4. Tony Tapin, 5. Eric Jackson, 6. Jeff Baker, 7. Alex Whang, 8. Bob Elliott, 9. Bill Bricker, 10. David Hoffman, 11. Gordon Stevens, 12. Bill White, 13. Larry Kamada, 14. Reg Bova, 15. Larry van Eckhaud, 16. Jack Wing, 17. Howard McKenny, 18. John Quandt, 19. Wayne Lee, 20. Firdosh Anklesaria, 21. John Lovato, 22. Jerry Blank, 23. Terrifics lead with 3-0 mark

ALBANY — Tom's Terrifics ran their second half record to 3-0 in last week's action in the Albany Park and Recreation Department's Men's Liniment Softball League.

The current leaders lived up to their team name by downing the Champs, 7-6, and the Winners, 2-0.

Ken Berner homered twice, and Don Chelmedos and Jim Vincent each scored five times as the over-the-Hill Gang lambed Al's Big Burger, 37-3. Nick Kempe kept his hitting streak alive and Ed Devere scored twice in defect.

First round champs, the First Round Club, passed a stern test, edging the Winners, 4-3, on the strength of a seven-run second inning.

The Winners got four base hits in the lead-off spot and a pair of homers from Chris Weingaard.

Mark Phillips stroked some key hits to lead St. Ambrose to a 7-6 decision over Oliveira Plumbing.

Those last-inning rally hits were short. Oliveira dropped another tough luck contest to the Champs, 3-1, as Bill Perry's two singles enabled the club to score decisive runs in the early innings.

PG&E: ask identification

Customers of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. were warned today by company officials to insist on positive identification of any person who claims to represent PG&E.

The caution comes on the heels of a few scattered incidents throughout PG&E's service area involving individuals who fraudulently claimed to represent PG&E.

In one case, the PG&E name apparently was used to induce the consumer to purchase a particular product. In another, the misrepresentation was for the purpose of gaining access to the home for theft.

"We are in the energy business," said Joseph Y. De Young, PG&E vice president-Customer Operations, "and of course we recommend that the consumer take all feasible steps to maintain an energy efficient home."

"This includes such measures as installing insulation, having a contractor service your heating or air conditioning system or purchasing a solar heater for a swimming pool," he added.

For homeowners who are considering making any home improvements aimed at reducing their energy consumption, De Young urged getting bids from three established firms before making a final selection. "This is one of the very best protections against being financially exploited," he said.

"PG&E from time to time does have employees contacting customers in the field regarding conservation," De Young said.

However, all PG&E employees carry plastic laminated identification cards bearing the employee's photograph, Social Security number and birthdate. The cards are beige with brown printing and PG&E's yellow and brown emblem appears at the top.

A customer who is suspicious of a person allegedly representing PG&E should immediately notify the police and the nearest PG&E office.

Government spending

Editor: There is no one in today's society who does not look for some of the benefits of government spending. There are government programs for everyone.

Big government means big money. Big politicians get big money from big numbers of little people. In the final analysis, every dollar of tax money comes from the little people — the consumers — you and me.

Tax reform can lead to lower taxes — but only if we can reduce government spending. There is no alternative.

There are numerous self-help projects. A good example is the "flower box" project in Jersey City which triggered neighborhood renewal and reduction of crime and social problems without government money. (Readers Digest, Sept. 1976). But these projects are hard to get off the ground. Why? Perhaps it is because so many otherwise intelligent people are so accustomed to seeking "more money" as a solution for all problems. Universities seek bigger budgets. HEW seeks bigger budgets. And the "chiselers" all down the line, rejoice.

We, the little people, are in the middle. We all want the benefits of government spending. We all want lower taxes. Perhaps that is why we are all mad at the "system." We forget that we are the system.

On Nov. 2, I will vote for the "middle of the road" candidates. They are with me — in the middle.

Samuel R. Dows Albany

Lost dog

Dear Editor: A few days ago my German shepherd puppy wandered away. He is six months old, is black and tan, and has long pointed ears that stand straight up. His name is Lobo.

I think it is possible someone may have found him and taken him home, disregarding the tag on his collar that said where he belongs. I can understand the temptation to take home an appealing lost puppy. But I wonder if those who succumb to the temptation could for just a minute put themselves in the place of the owner — and recall for themselves the pain of losing someone they love.

It is an old story, to learn to put oneself in another's shoes and it's a part of increasing maturity, to care for one's neighbor as well as oneself.

I urge finders to try to locate owners, or contact the pound. (You have first dibs if an animal is not claimed.)

Pinafore." The Lamplighters Production Theatre has long enjoyed an enviable reputation in the Bay Area, particularly for productions of Gilbert and Sullivan operettas.

Mrs. J. A. Scalia was in charge of the program. In the receiving line were Mary Flinn, and Mmes. Gilbert Hoag, Robert Williams, David Cole, Kempton Lampson and Frank Forbes. Mmes. Arthur R. Frueh and William C. Dietrich poured. Hostesses were Mmes. A. B. Herrick, H. S. Nobmann, Rudolph Halvorsen, and Misses Clara Nigg and Golda Morford. Mmes. Chester Murray, Jack Cathcart and E. L. Haymond decorated the hall.

The Fine Arts section of the club, meeting in the church social hall at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 10, will hear Mrs. Alton L. Davis discuss antique glass. Mrs. Davis is known as a collector and will show many of her beautiful pieces, commenting on their origin, date of production and the reasons for certain shapes and colors. Tea will be served after the program.

Hostesses will be Mmes. Tom Matsumoto, H. S. Nobmann, and Mrs. David Cole. Mrs. Cole also is chairman of the section, calls attention to the change in meeting time. The section this year will meet on the second Friday of each month.

The Duplicate Bridge section will meet in the church social hall at 11:45 a.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 14. Each member is to bring her own sandwich. Tea and coffee will be served before playing begins. Mrs. Robert H. Williams, chairman, requests that each member provides her own partner. Mmes. Max Speelman and Ellison Shute will be hostesses.

This year the Armchair Travel section and the Books and World Affairs section will meet in the social hall on the same day, this month on Friday, Sept. 17. The Travel section will meet at 11 a.m. and the Books and World Affairs section at 1 p.m. All club members are welcome to attend both sections. No reservations or guest fees are required. At noon Mmes. Arthur Horn and C. Edward Pedersen, for the morning section, and Mmes. Frederick Kennerley and Doris Potter, for the afternoon section, will serve tea, coffee, relishes and cookies. Members are asked to bring their own sandwiches.

Skoal Scandinavia will be John B. Azer's topic when he conducts a picture tour through the magic lands of northern Europe at 11 a.m. He will be introduced by Mrs. Gilbert Hoag, section chairman.

"Women in American Literature" will be Mrs. H. D. Duckworth's subject when she addresses the Book and World Affairs section at 1 p.m. Mrs. Duckworth will speak primarily of women who have won distinction not only for their writings, but also for their outstanding contributions to the welfare of the country and of humanity.

The Contract Bridge section will enjoy dessert and bridge on Sept. 21 in the social hall of the church. Members need not provide their own partners. Dessert will be served at noon by Mary Flinn, section chairman, assisted by Frances Malefy and Mrs. H. S. Nobmann. All club members are welcome even though they may not be expert players. They are invited to learn and to have fun.

Andy Gotzenberg, vice president of the American Institute of Landscape Architects, whose landscape designs have appeared in many magazines, will talk to the Home and Gardens section when it meets at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 28, in the social hall. He will suggest how brick, stone sculpture, railroad ties, pools, potted plants and raised planting beds may be used to make patios and gardens more attractive.
